

ARTIST: Lokae
TITLE: City Lights (EP)
LABEL: Daly City Records
CAT-NO: DCR152
FORMAT: Digital Release
RELEASE DATE: 05/18/2010

Lokae's striking debut City Lights highlights his flexibility for crafting both heavy voltage beats that propel vocal arrangements and also adventurous treks into densely populated future bass narratives. In the effort's single, "City Lights", stark drum patterns weave through Joe Mousepad's push-comes-to-shove rhyme schemes while Audio Angel's soulful croon uplifts the streets to the skyline. "Till The End" showcases Lokae's more abstract glitch style that shapes surreal cinematic tales. Liquidic bass towers against laser blips and frigid synth melodies, conjuring impressions of underwater robotic wars between android whale-ships and alien life forms. The animate merges with artifice, as City Lights illuminates as much as it intoxicates.

Kush Arora (Dread Bass Soundsystem/RecordLabelRecords)

"A solid first effort. This is the most unique and original sound that Lokae has presented and we need more of it. He adds to the small pool of actual song based composers in the cluttered genre of west coast bass music."

Kid Kameleon (Surya Dub)

"Lokae's range of tunes and vibes is impressive, from the sharp staccato of "till the end" to the fun grit of "inverse polarity". A great debut!"

ill.Gates (Muti Music)

"Classy and mature sounds from a hot new producer. Sleep on this one and forever regret it!"

Katherine Kirby (Pirate Cat Radio)

"Lokae brings us another glitched out hit, recruiting Bay Area talents Audio Angel and Joe Mousepad on his City Lights E.P. Guaranteed to be a favorite at Pirate Cat Radio!"
